

Acknowledgments

Originally my Master's thesis, this book has been a long time in coming. Naturally, it was not without help and encouragement. Among the numerous people who have helped me are the following: James B. Allen, Lavina Fielding Anderson, Newell G. Bringhurst, Chad Flake, B. Carmon Hardy, Wayne Mori, D. Michael Quinn, Malcolm R. Thorp, John W. Welch, Ronald W. Walker, and David J. Whittaker.

I would like to thank the following institutions, in which I conducted research, for their courtesy and help: Brigham Young University Archives and Manuscripts and Brigham Young University Special Collections, Provo, Utah; the Family History Library, Salt Lake City, Utah; the Historical Department of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints, Salt Lake City, Utah, The British Library, London, England; Hereford and Worcester Record Office, Worcester, England; Lancashire Record Office, Preston, England; Liverpool City Libraries, Record Office and Local History Department, Liverpool, England; Manx Museum, Douglas, Isle of Man; National Library of Ireland, Dublin, Ireland; National Library of Scotland, Edinburgh, Scotland; Preston City Library, Preston, England; University of London, Institute of Historical Research, London, England; Wexford County Record Office, Wexford, Ireland; the Special Collections of the Olin Library at Kenyon College; and, the Gordon Keith Chalmers Memorial Library at Kenyon College.

I would also like to thank my mother and father for all of their encouragement and support. Most importantly, I would like to thank my wife, Suzanne, for her love, help and patience. She has spent numerous hours encouraging me, helping me, proofreading, and offering suggestions. I would also like to thank my children, Robert, Shannon, and Senia for all of their love and support.
