

Craig L. Foster earned a BA and MA in history and an MLIS from Brigham Young University. He works as a Research Specialist at the family History Library in Salt Lake City. He resides in Layton with his wife, Suzanne, and their three children, but prefers to be at the family cabin in southern Utah hiding from the world.

When he is not dreaming of another way to get back to the British Isles, Foster is actively involved in several scholarly and heritage organizations. He has published in a number of scholarly journals including BYU Studies, Dialogue: A Journal of Mormon Thought, Journal of Mormon History, and Utah Historical Quarterly.
